

"HATS OFF" to the Senior Volunteers in the Ashwaubenon Schools who have given so generously of their knowledge, time, and talents during the 2010-2011 school year.

"HATS OFF" TO...

-  Weekly classroom volunteers who helped with reading, math, writing, and spelling at Cormier Early Learning Center and Pioneer and Valley View Elementary Schools.
-  Seniors who served as library helpers at Pioneer and Valley View.
-  Lioness Club members who volunteered every Monday at Cormier.
-  Christmas RIF readers at Valley View, including the Readers' Theater troupe for 5th graders.
-  Seniors who organized the Valley View Clothing Boutique.
-  Set-up and serving crews for Valley View's Breakfasts With Mom.
-  Readers for Dr. Seuss' Birthday Celebration at Pioneer and Valley View.
-  Reading Buddies at Parkview Middle School.
-  Ushers for the Ashwaubenon High School musical performances.
-  Judges for the AHS Destination Imagination regional competition.
-  Proctors for the Advanced Placement tests at AHS.
-  Seniors who served as guest speakers, guest performers, guest judges and special event assistants at all five schools.

THANK YOU SENIOR CITIZEN VOLUNTEERS! We sincerely appreciate your commitment, compassion, and the many hours of volunteer service you have given us.

- The students, staff, and school board of the Ashwaubenon School District
